

A woman with long dark hair, smiling, stands in a forest. She is wearing a vibrant red, sleeveless, knee-length lace dress with a fitted bodice and a full skirt. She is also wearing red open-toe high-heeled sandals with bows. She is leaning against the thick, textured trunk of a large tree. The background shows more trees and a hint of a body of water in the distance. The lighting is warm, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.
